GENERAL RULES AND INFORMATION – Keep this page for your information

1. Limit of (3) quilts per entrant. All entries will be juried and judged unless specified otherwise. All entries must have been completed since March 2005. Items entered in previous NPQG shows will not be allowed

2. Each entry must be entered in ONE category only (except any quilt that is eligible for the theme category).

Bed Quilt - Predominately Pieced, following a traditional design. Size over 250” perimeter.

Bed Quilt - Predominately Appliqued Size over 250” perimeter

Bed Quilt - Combined effort – the product of 2 or more persons. Includes all techniques, as well as quilting by a person other than the maker of the quilt top. Size over 250” perimeter.

Wall Quilt - Pieced. Size up to 250” perimeter. Quilts that are intended for use on a wall that follow a traditional design, including miniatures.

Wall Quilt - Appliqued. Size up to 250” perimeter. Quilts that are intended for use on a wall that incorporate traditional design or technique, including miniatures.

Wall Quilt - Combined effort – the product of 2 or more persons, any technique, as well as quilting by a person other than the maker of the quilt top. Size up to 250” perimeter.

Innovative - Any size. The quilt is non-traditional in construction or design, such as use of painting, photo transfer, significant amounts of embellishments, or unusual materials.

Wearable Art – Any wearable item that is quilted all or in part.

Creative Youth – Any quilt made by a youth 15 years of age or younger. Awards will be made within this category.

Professional – A quilter who falls into any of the following categories: has been published and/or featured in a national quilt publication; has designed and sold patterns; relies on teaching and/or selling quilts as a major source of income; is a quilt shop owner.

3. All entries must be quilted. A quilted entry consists of three layers, primarily fabric, held together by stitching. Do not submit cheater panel quilts, tied quilts or entries constructed in two layer techniques (such as Cathedral Window).

4. Entries must be clean, complete and undamaged. All quilts must have a four-inch hanging sleeve sewn to the quilt. The sleeve on large bed quilts must be 90” from the bottom of the quilt. A cloth label with the name of the entrant and the name of the quilt should be sewn to the back of the quilt.

5. Entry applications must be received by February 1, 2010. Entry fees are non-refundable. Shipping costs to and from the show are the responsibility of the entrant. Details for delivery to the show will be included in your acceptance notification.

6. North Pittsburgh Quilters Guild (NPQG) reserves the right ----

- To eliminate a category
- To reassign an entry to the appropriate category if entered improperly or category is eliminated
- To reject an entry at show time, if we find the rules have been violated
- To publish photos of winning quilts and names of winners on the NPQG website

7. Insurance during the show will be provided by North Pittsburgh Quilters Guild. Large quilts valued at more than $500 and small quilts valued at more than $100 require an attached written appraisal. Security will be provided 24 hours a day during the show.

8. Show hours will be Friday and Saturday 10am-5pm; Sunday noon to 4 pm.
