President's Message

I hope everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving. Tracey has a great time planned for the December Meeting. Please bring an item for auction and your checkbook. This will be our fundraiser for the year. You never know what cool stuff you'll see, and you have to have. See how competitive your bidding can be! Looking forward to seeing all of you at the meeting. P.S. Invite your friends.

Thanks,
Denise Ludwig

December Meeting ~~~~~ December 4th, at 7:00 p.m.

Auction !!!

This is a great fundraiser for the Guild, as well as being a lot of fun.

Bring your item and your checkbook, and be sure to register for a bidding number because this makes you eligible for prize winnings during the evening.

Please bring with each donation a card or sheet of paper with a little write-up/description. Include directions, if appropriate. This will help the auctioneer to boost interest and potential price your item brings in. Type or write clearly.

When you sign in at the registration table, you will get a “Paddle” with a number. Winning bids will be recorded by numbers and tallied at the end of the evening.

Good luck!!!

Hospitality

Requesting Holiday Fare for the Party Table!

Thanks, Jeannie McCormick

I don't know about you, but I'm sewing my butt off preparing holiday gifts. Every year I sew something special for my family. I'm working on my hubby's gift. He is a baseball fan and i am working on a t-shirt quilt.

If anyone has a Three Rivers Stadium t-shirt, I'd be happy to buy it from you.

I am looking forward to our December meeting, which is our auction. All of our Committee Chairs and Co-chairs are working hard preparing for a fun-filled evening. They are to be commended for their hard work and dedication.

So, bring your goodies and your checkbook! I bid on things and discover that I'm bidding against MYSELF!

See you at the meeting, your Friendly Quilter,

Community Service

Now is the time to bring in your Lap Robes for the Veterans, I will be collecting them and winding down this service project.

Thank you for your hard work and dedication !

~~~~~ Bus Trip ~~~~~

I am finding it exciting to be working on the Quilt Trip to Lancaster in March because 16 people have already sent in their $50 deposit and that means we only need 20 more people to sign up and make this trip a reality!!

So, if you are planning to go with us March 28 and 29, send your deposit to Sylvia Lynn

143 Carriage Hill Road
Glenshaw, 15116

Or, give it to Donna Martin at the December meeting.

It is going to be a very fun trip !!!!!

Sylvia Lynn

This item was sent to our Website for consideration. Please plan on discussing this if you think it appropriate,

I am a member of Three River's Quilters and we are planning two service projects for the Tree of Life. The first project is a quilt to donate to the synagogue. Nancy Palmquist is coordinating this. The second project is a quilt for each of the six first responders injured during the shooting. These are scrap quilts using a simple string block foundation pieced on a piece of newspaper or telephone book paper. Please let me know if your guild is interested in participating.

Thank you for your consideration
