February 2021 Newsletter

President's Message

Hello everyone!!

February is here and time for Valentines, hearts and candy! (Mmmm... chocolate!)

I hope this finds everyone safe and healthy.

Sandra Schott has agreed to be on the Committee for the 2022 Quilt Show.

Thank you, Sandra! We need others to step up and help with the planning. This is YOUR show, let's make it a good one!!

Betty Kania is heading the Nominating Committee to find officers for the 2022 Guild year. We are in need of a President and Vice-President.

Stacy Koehler is doing a great job setting up meetings, and planning speakers and workshops. The Coffee Break Zoom was very nice and it was great seeing everyone. And a Zoom Quilt & Wilt ?? Saturday, January 30 !! What a cool idea and so (sew) fun !!

I miss us getting together in person for Q&W and I can't wait until we can do so again.

Stay safe, keep quilting, and may your bobbins never run out !!

Mollie Healy ~~ President

Nominating Committee

HELP!! Your help is needed now. I have agreed to head the Nominating Committee to find officers for next year. However, I am a committee of one so far, and that cannot be. I need 2 more volunteers. We need a slate of Officers to be presented to the Guild Membership at the March meeting. If anyone is interested please contact me at 412-635-9797 or kaniab@verizon.net as soon as possible.

If anyone is interested in being an officer or a committee chairman, again, please contact me. Volunteers help to make this job a little easier. Remember, most positions can be co-chaired, so why not get together with a friend and help out. A qualification for any position is that you must be a paid up dues member.

Hope to hear from some of you soon.

From the Webmaster

I'm still posting pics of what you have created in the last couple of months.

Why don't you take a few pics and send them along to me? We all want to see what everyone has done. You can email them to me:

zigo13@comcast.net or text them to 412-916-1280. Thanks for supporting the web site.

The January Caption Contest ended. Our winner is:

Sandy Schott: "OMG, did she skip a stitch ??"

The February contest will be posted on Feb. 1. The groundhog is a funny guy so he will be entering a funny caption - you should too.

Thanks for supporting the web site,

Tracey Zigo ~~ Webmaster

Our February meeting:

On Tuesday, February 2, we will have a Quilter's Book Review. When you come to the meeting, bring a book (1 or more!) you would recommend to the group. It can be anything at all, about quilting, not about quilting, fiction, non-fiction. A how-to book with patterns or useful information you've found useful or a book with a pattern you've always wanted to make. A book about other activities you enjoy, Anything at all! Watch for the Zoom invitation!

In March, we will have a meeting and workshop with Cyndi McChesney, who will do a lecture and workshop called Panel Palooza, about how to use the fabric panels we all have in a more creative way than just sewing on a border. The meeting will be on Tuesday March 2. The workshop will be 2 half days, Saturday March 6 and Saturday March 13. More information will be sent out as I receive it.

Virtual Quilt & Wilt: Although it might have already happened by the time the newsletter comes out, on Saturday January 30, we will try our first virtual Quilt and Wilt. Set up your computer or tablet or phone next to your sewing machine and just hang out with us. I've set up a Zoom meeting from 9:30 to 4:00. Come and go when you want. The invitation will come out a few days before the event.
