It's that time of year again. The post-Christmas projects fiasco, then trying to restore some functional space in my sewing room so that I can get back to sewing! It is almost overwhelming – the only thing that keeps me working at it is the fact that I need to sew to be fulfilled. (and make room for more fabric!) While I am at it I can alternate with the refrain “Next year I won't wait so long to start Christmas projects!” I got that one on a loop in my head. Thinking about what new project I am going to start is fun, as well as trying to decide on a new technique to learn, so many prospects!

One thing I will be doing is making my Bingo card – this sounds like a fun meeting!

I wish you all a very Happy New Year and look forward to seeing you this coming year.

Jan

Here is my Bingo card, found time to do it!

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Just a reminder for all members, there is still time to subscribe or renew your subscription to Fons and Porter's Love of Quilting magazine. The cost to the Guild is $15 for a year's subscription. That's a $5 discount! There will be a sign up sheet available at the January meeting. If you have already signed up or would like to, please bring a check for $15 made out to NPQG to the January Guild meeting. See you in 2015!

Hospitality – We want to thank everyone who brought in food items for the Fat Quarter table. Everything was so delicious. It's hard to keep asking every month, but here we go again. We would love to have appetizers, snacks or desserts brought in for our January meeting. Some of you have requested healthy items so if you are so inclined, please bring and share those items with everyone. Thank you! May everyone's New Year be healthy, productive and prosperous.

Lynn and Barb

Thank you to all of those who donated to the Backpack Initiative. A report of donations will be forthcoming from Sue Kremmel. But I know that the recipients of your generosity appreciate what you have done for them.

Just a reminder that the next meeting is January 6, 2015 (first Tuesday of the month) and the meeting starts at 7 PM. Please bring your Bingo card. Denise Ludwig can answer any questions you have regarding this event. www.FonsandPorter.com/bingo will provide you with instructions for making the card and also contains game instructions. It is not too late to get the card made and join in the fun.

Yes, "Cup and a Quarter" will be held at the January 6 meeting. So, if you would like to donate a cup with quarter or pieces of fabric, this is your opportunity. Also, your opportunity to purchase a raffle ticket to win a "Cup and a Quarter"
