President's Message

Hello Ladies,

I hope everyone has had a wonderful Christmas and New Years filled with family, friends, fun and good food. (Remember the calories do not count during the holiday season) 2021 was definitely different for our guild adjusting to all of the changes we had with Covid this past year, but I think we handled it quite well. Remember that our January and February meetings will be on Zoom and we will return in person/Zoom in March. I was able to have 3 of my 4 children home with me this holiday season, so I am grateful for that and the ability to Zoom. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to everyone, let's have 2022 be a wonderful year for us all.

Programs

The January and February meetings will be virtual via Zoom. We are hoping to get past the worst of the winter weather without actually going out in the cold and the dark. (Although the weather does not appear to have gotten the memo about the cold part.) Anyway....

January's meeting will be our (annual?) book and movie review. Let's call it the Quilter's Choice Awards. If you've read or seen anything this year that you think others might enjoy, come to the meeting and make the recommendation. It can be fiction or non-fiction. It can be about quilting or not about quilting. It can be anything you've found interesting, thought-provoking, helpful, up-lifting, amusing, diverting, escape-y (???)....whatever. It can be a book, a movie, a series, a podcast....anything!
We'd love to hear about it.

February's meeting will also be virtual. And it will be on a different night. Instead of the first Tuesday in February, it will be on the third. I repeat: The February zoom meeting will be on Tuesday February 15th. It has been changed to accommodate our speaker (Yes! A speaker!) The speaker will be Diane Harris of Stash Bandit Quilting Shenanigans. She will be presenting her lecture Taste Test: Unexpected Sampler Quilts.
Mark your calendar now so you don't miss this rescheduled meeting.

Treasurer's Report ~ Show Me the Money

The Guild's bank balance as of December 31, 2021 was $15,295.68.
I said I would do a year to date financial report as of the end of 2021. I am working on that, but given my dismal history with spreadsheets, it may be a little while. ~~~ Best to all in the new year.
